step into our life at
pleasant gardens
a life of frustration
hopes and fears
of striving for
perfection and
sometimes settling
for something less
life at pleasant
gardens is a meeting
of minds an exchange
of thoughts an
endeavor in both
scholastic and athletic fields a life of
preparation for the world beyond
through our world
we invite you to
walk and listen to the
footsteps of memories

a turn of a key
the rumble of a bus
and life at pleasant
gardens begins

through
co-operation
and understanding
among the faculty
and students, we
endeavor to grow
intellectually

with the ring of a bell

the sound of voices

a class begins

only to end

it's not all work
it can be fun too

faculty

we express our appreciation to these teachers who guide and instruct us from day to day

"No, Martha, that's not yellow fingers."

"Wonder if I should put in the freshmen tomorrow night..."

Mr. Eugene Byrd

"Hmmm, that's interesting."

"...a shadow on the wall and then..."

Mrs. Judy Davis

Mr. Charles Edwards

Miss Doris Elliot

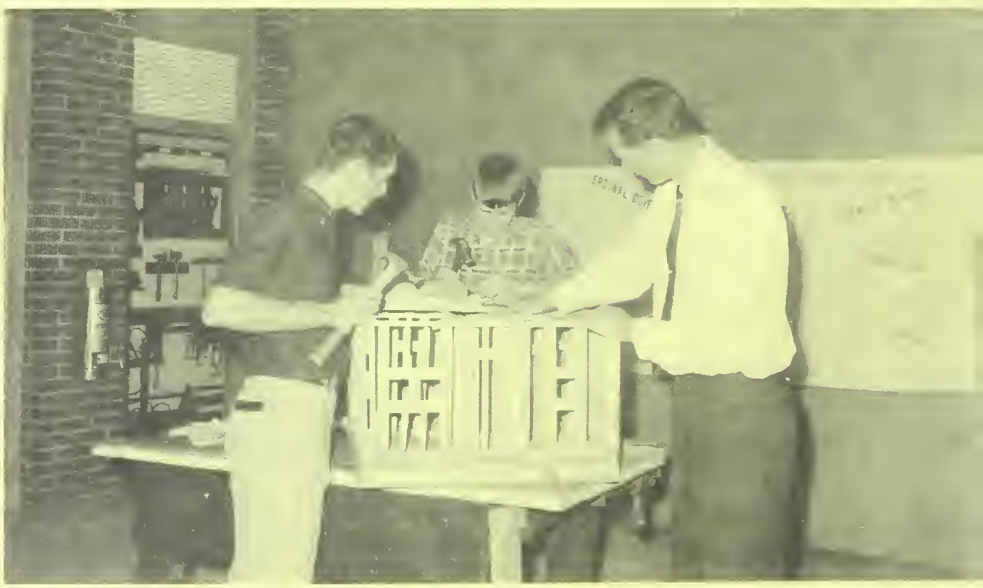
Mrs. Veo Gibbs

Mr. Tom Johnson

Mrs. Jane Rowe

"Joan, that's not a basketball court."

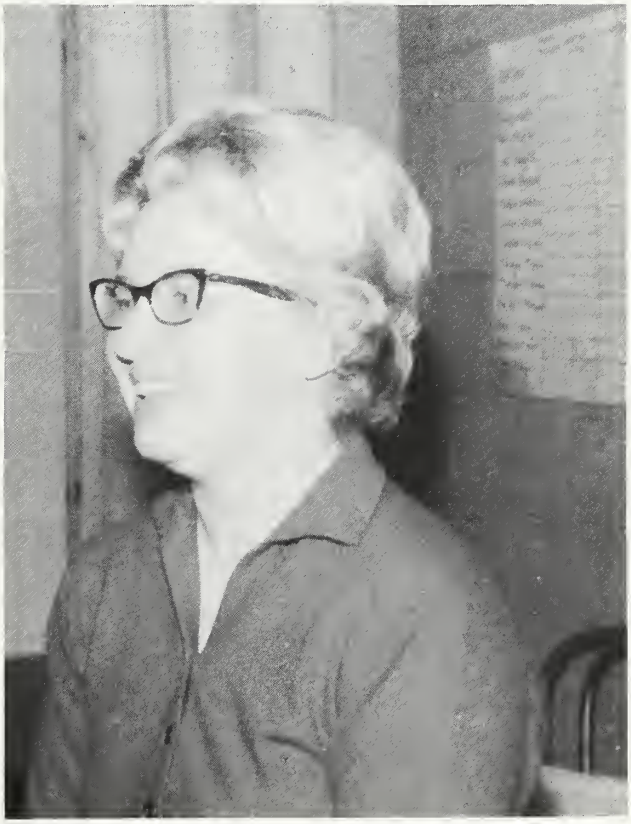
"Watch out for my fingers, Harold."



"That's right, one original poem."

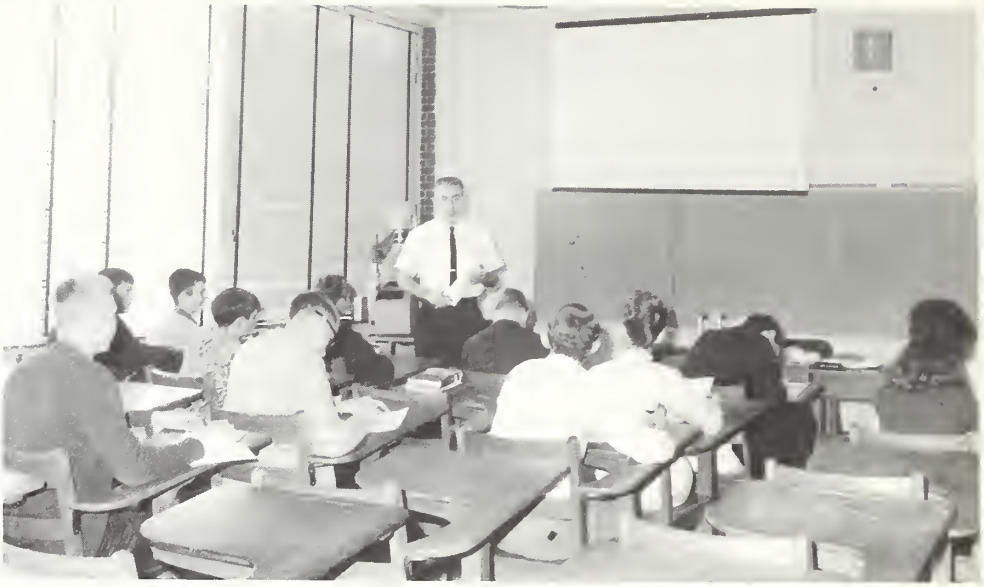
"Tommy, hands on the home keys."

"Would someone please wake Walter up?"



Miss Joyce Smith

Mrs. Peggy Smith



"Hurry up with those papers, my machine's running."

In Memoriam

Micheal Neal Padgett

There is no death! The stars go down To rise upon some fairer shore;
And bright, in heaven's jeweled crown,
They shine for evermore.

He leaves our hearts all desolate,
He plucks our fairest, sweetest flowers;
Transplanted into bliss, they now Adorn immortal bowers.

And ever near us, though unseen,
The dear immortal spirits tread;
For all the boundless universe
Is life-there is no dead!
